Numb. 806

The Daily Gazetteer.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2. 1738.

N°. 814.

LETTERS of the 15th of December, O. S. from Lisbon, mention the Death of Don Alexander Ferreira, who was a Knight of the Order of Christ, Deputy of the Council of Conscience, Counsellor of the Junto of the Bull of the Cro'sade, Judge of the Slaves, Member of the Queen's Council, Auditor General of her Revenues, and a Member of the Royal Academy of History. He had begun to write that of the Military Orders of Portugal, of which he had already publish'd two Volumes, wherein he treats particularly of the Order of Knights Templars, instituted in 1118, after the Conquest of the Holy Land; and shews that Baldwin, King of Jerusalem, having given them a Part of his Palace which join'd to the Temple of Solomon, they took Occasion from thence to call themselves Templars; that this Order spread so fast in a short Space of Time, that it possess'd 40,000 Commanderies; but that at length the irregular and scandalous Lives of those Knights, engag'd Pope Clement V. to excommunicate them in 1307, so that they were quickly after extirpated by the Christian Princes.

Letters of the 7th ult. O. S. from Rome say, that on the 4th a Fire broke out in the Hall of the Spanish Palace where they keep all the ancient Deeds and Records; among which were some of above 600 Years old; but they were all consum'd. We are told that Prince James Sobieski, who died lately in Poland, and was the Chevalier de St. George's Father-in-Law, has, by his Will, left a considerable Legacy to the Chevalier's eldest Son.

Those of the 20th from Hamburgh say, that several of the Protestant Powers having caus'd a considerable Collection to be made in their Dominions for the Protestants of Poland and Lithuania, the Money has been lately remitted to Dantzick; and a Part of it has been employ'd in paying off the Arrears of the Taxes which the Protestants are oblig'd to pay to the Crown of Poland; and on the Non-payment whereof, several of their Churches were shut up, which are now open again. Suss, the noted Jew of Oppenheim, is to be hang'd in Chains at Stutgard on an Iron Gibbet.

Letters from Paris mention the Death of the Bishop of Boulogne at his Diocese on the 14th ult. and of Guy Julius Mazarin, Duke of Mazarin, and a Peer of France, Governor of Port Louis, &c. who died suddenly on the 19th. When the Cardinal de Fleury recover'd from his late Indisposition he was for going abroad too soon; but the King, whose Affection for him is known to all the World, wou'd not suffer him to leave his Chamber; but said to him with a Joke, 'Tis my Will and Pleasure that you be still and keep your Chamber; or else I'll send you a Writ to confine you to it.

The News that has been publish'd in several Papers of the Order sent by the Russian Court to the Governor of Derbent on the Caspian Sea, to put that Place in a good State of Defence by reason of some Designs form'd by Kouli Kan, is very ridiculous as well as groundless; because Derbent has not been long'd to the Muscovites since the Persians recover'd Possession of that Place, by virtue of the 2d Article of the Treaty concluded in 1732, between Russia and Persia, in which tho' Derbent is not expresly nam'd, yet 'twas included in the Countries which Russia at that time yielded to Persia.

Petersburg, Jan. 7. M. Hohenholtz, the Emperor's Minister, received last Week an Express from Vienna, with Orders to acquaint this Court, that the Emperor had been well informed the Turks would readily make Peace, in case the Czarina would restore to them Oczakow. M. Suhm, the King of Poland's Minister, received a Courier the 27th past from Dresden, with Orders to compliment the Czarina on the Turks being obliged to raise the Siege of Oczakow. The 18th Instant Count Ostein arrived here from Niemerow by the Way of Poland. On the 2d Instant, M. Suhum received a Courier from Dresden, who brought him a Letter from the Czarina, by which the King of Poland informs her Majesty, that his eldest Daughter is to be married to the King of Naples. On the 3d Instant a Courier arrived here with an Account, that Donduc Ombo, with 20 or 30,000 of his Calmucks, and Frolow with about 14,000 Don Cossacks, have made an Incursion into the Territories of the Cuban Tartars, destroy'd a little Town, and taken 4 or 5000 Prisoners, and a vast Number of Cattle, and killed all the Men and Women they could meet that were about forty Years of Age.

Copenhagen, Jan. 25. N. S. The Council was held Yesterday at Fridericksberg, and the several Colleges received their Expeditions as usual; but the King of Denmark, being somewhat out of Order, did not quit his Apartment, and there was no Court.

Dresden, Jan. 29. N. S. M. Rumpf, the Dutch Minister, presented the 25th Instant to the King, a Letter of Congratulation from the States General, on the Marriage of the eldest Princess with Don Carlos. This Court being not satisfied with the Manner their Troops are kept in Winter Quarters in Hungary, insist upon better Conditions for the next Campaign.

Berlin, Feb. 1. N. S. His Prussian Majesty has been pleased to appoint M. Borck, lately his Envoy Extraordinary in England, to go in the same Quality to the Court of Vienna, in the Room of M. Brandt, who is recalled, and has obtained the Place of President of the Ecclesiastical Affairs. Baron Gotter, formerly his Prussian Majesty's Minister at Vienna, is aproin'ed to reside in that Quality, at the Court of Dresden. On Saturday last M. Eilard, his Prussian Majesty's chief Physician, was sent for to Potsdam, where the Queen of Prussia was indisposed. Her Majesty's Indisposition was attended with no ill Consequences; it proved only to be a Cold, which had fallen upon her Breast, of which her Majesty is at present pretty well recovered; but Princess Ulrica, their Prussian Majesties 5th Daughter, lies very ill of a Fever.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Jan. 26. We learn, that all the combustible Part of the Church of Blackford, in Perthshire, was reduced to Ashes the 20th Instant, occasioned, 'tis said, by the Negligence of the Schoolmaster or his Scholars, the School being kept in the Church.

Last Wednesday the Magistrates and Council appointed Mr. Ninian Cuningham, Clerk to the Canongate, in the room of Mr. Swinton, who has resigned.

The Millicent, Frazer, bound from Boston to Leith, mentioned in the London Prints to have been lost near Winterton, we are well informed is got off, with little Damage to the Ship or Cargo; but that all the Hands, except three Men and a Boy, perished, by their too precipitantly leaving the Ship, and betaking themselves to the Long boat.

Frazersburgh, Jan. 25. There is lately built here by the Right Hon. my Lord Salton, a most excellent new Pier and Bulwark, all of fine Free Stone, very safe and as commodious as any on the East Coast for Ships: Thirty Ships may winter here at once with great Safety; the Water at full Sea is 18 or 20 Foot.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Reading, Jan 30. On Saturday Night, between the Hours of 5 and 6, Giles Blagrave, of Purley, was set upon in a Field between the Cardinal's Cap and Roebuck, in the Road to Pangburn, by a Person or Persons unknown, who 'tis supposed, first knocked him down, and afterwards robbed him of about 7 l. 10 s. in Money. By the Violence of the Blows, the Ruffians fractured his Scull, and probably left him for dead; but he recovering himself a little, and seeing a Person in the Road, begg'd of him to assist him to the next House, which the inhuman Wretch refused, as he voluntarily owned, pretending he had a Charge of Money about him, and was afraid of meeting the Ruffians, who might serve him in the same Manner. The poor Man however made Shift to get to the Roebuck; but by the great Effusion of Blood, and the extreme Agony he was in, being so weakened that his Speech was gone, he had only Strength left to kick at the Door with his Foot. There being only a Woman and a Child in the House, and hearing a Man groan, they were afraid to open the Door, so being unable to get entrance, or stir any farther, he dropt down in the Yard, and lay in a most deplorable Condition, till the Landlord of the House, who is a Blacksmith, came home from Work, and carried him in; but tho' a Surgeon was immediately sent for from Reading, and all possible Care taken of him, he never could be brought to his Speech, but expired Yesterday Morning about 4 o'Clock. It is remarable, that 14 Years ago, on the same Day of the Week and Month, one Farmer Blagrave, a near Relation of the Deceased, was robbed and murdered in the same manner, in a Field a little beyond Causham, as he was returning Home from our Market.

Yesterday one Edward Chapman of Pangborn, was committed by Mr. Potenger to Gaol, on a strong Suspicion of being principally concerned in the said Murder. This Fellow, who is a Gardiner, first brought the News of the Robbery to Reading; but it was observed that as he told the Story at a Shoemaker's, where he bought a Pair of Shoes, he was all in a tremble; and being asked the Reason, he answered, he was so shock'd on seeing the Man, that he had not yet recovered the Surprize. This was taken no further notice of then; but when Word was brought, that the Farmer was dead of his Wounds, the Shoemaker began to reflect on the Behaviour of the Fellow, and thought it advisable to have him apprehended, and accordingly got a Warrant, and seized him at a House of evil Fame, where he had been all Night in company with common Creatures of the Town. When he was at the Compter, he confessed he had met the Deceased, spoke with, and helped him to get on Horseback; before the Justice, he denied the helping him on Horseback, but that he spoke to the Deceased, just after the Robbery was committed; that the Deceased said he had been robbed of 7 l. 10 s. and begg'd of him to go home with him, which he refused, and the Reason he gave for so doing was, because he had a Letter to carry in haste for Mr. Hawes. This he owned afterwards in the Gaol, was a Lye.

The Person first mentioned to have spoke with the Farmer, said further, that he met a Person either in his own black Hair, or a dark Wig, with a Club in his Hand, making towards Reading, and that the Farmer told him such a one had robbed him.

On Monday Morning about 3 o'Clock a Fire broke out at Mr. Kents at Andover in Hants, which consum'd his Dwelling and Mill; he had not time to save any of his Goods.
